More good news. Two more things have been deleted, this time from Equifax.

Let me know if you'd like anything else,

Tony

[REDACTED] am so thankful for all that you guys have done for me. Because of your diligent work in a very short period of time, I was able to rent my apartment with no deposit and I was able to buy a car and get financed through Capital One Auto Financing. I used to use another company that charge way more money, and I was unable to keep up with them because of the cost. I have recommended you to others and will continue to do so. Do you guys have an affiliate program?

Thank You
